Counseling – Individual, Marriage, Family, Group
Calvin Seminary values the formation of the whole person for ministry. This includes spiritual and emotional well-being. We are glad to provide a variety of counseling opportunities for all of our students and their dependents. These opportunities include individual counseling, marriage counseling, family counseling, group counseling, assertiveness training, and emotional intelligence seminars. All of the counselors maintain the highest standard of confidentiality. They do not report the content of conversations with clients to the seminary. Please contact Sarah Chun, Counseling Coordinator, to help connect you to the right counselor for you.

In order to provide these opportunities, Calvin Seminary partners with several local counselors and with Pine Rest Christian Mental Health Services. Costs for counseling vary between providers. Calvin Seminary subsidizes counseling with local individual counselors, but students with a health care plan that includes a counseling benefit are asked to use their health insurance coverage first. Details about available counselors and fees can be obtained through Sarah Chun.

Assertiveness Training and Emotional Intelligence Seminars
Assertiveness Training seminars and Emotional Intelligence (EQ) seminars are offered periodically, normally once every two years. The seminary pays half the cost for each student. See Sarah Chun for more information.

Additional Information:
• All of the counselors maintain the highest standard of confidentiality. They do not report the content of conversations with clients to the seminary.
• While Calvin Seminary offers subsidized counseling services, students with a health care plan that includes a counseling benefit are required to utilize their plan first.
• Please see Sarah Chun for more information.
